GENERAL INFORMATION

This report presents continuing education course enrolment data in the programmes offered by B.C. school districts, community colleges and provincial institutes[1] from July 1, 1980 to June 30, 1981. University continuing education enrolment data is not presented in this document.

Continuing education programmes include part-time high school completion and academic upgrading courses, vocational training and skills upgrading courses, general interest and community education courses. The part-time enrolments in college and institute university transfer, career/technical, and college preparatory programmes, are not included in this report. Data for the latter programmes is published in the Management Services publication "B.C. Post-Secondary Enrolment Statistics: 1980/81."

This edition is the third report prepared from information collected and processed by the Ministry of Education. Editions dated prior to 1979/80 were prepared from data processed by Statistics Canada using a different course/programme classification structure. This change in course classification is particularly important to note if earlier editions of this publication are consulted for comparative/ analytical purposes.

This year's data provides much information on the nature and sponsorship of events offered through school districts, colleges and institutes. Every event is classified as either conventional, non-conventional, non-instructional or community use (see definitions). These "classifications" were developed in response to various programme delivery models that have been developed, and to acknowledge the extent to which institutions provide non-instructional services. Prior to the 1979/80 reporting period, institutions had experienced difficulty in reporting non-conventional activities such as tutorials, continuous intake, drop-in courses, and programmes delivered using the media of radio and television. There had been an apparent increase in institutional involvement in activities which do not involve instruction, such as recreational activities, and use of space by local groups. As in 1979/80, data detailing the extent of their involvement in the provision of these non-instructional services is included in this report.

1 No reports were submitted by the B.C. Mining Institute, B.C.I.T., or Pacific Marine Institute

Institutions have been encouraged to cooperate with other community agencies in meeting the learning needs of adults. Institutions may share resources with these agencies to provide a programme. Alternatively a local industry or organization may purchase a course from an institution specifically for its own employees. Therefore, as in 1979/80, institutions were requested to provide course sponsorship information. Classes were categorized as institutional sponsored, co-sponsored, and contract services (see definitions).

All information to be found in this booklet is based entirely on the CE-120 Reports submitted by the school districts, community colleges and provincial institutes to the Continuing Education Division. The divisions of Continuing Education and Management Services review these reports prior to processing and printing of the data booklet - but alteration of the submissions are minimal - the data is published much as it is received by the Ministry. In the past couple of years, and particularly in 1980/81, the colleges have been much more diligent in their reporting of continuing education related data, this in part accounts for the marked increase in the number of registrants, classes, hours, etc. given this year. It is difficult to determine to what extent partial reporting still occurs - what can be stated, however, is that we are much closer to total system reporting this year than at anytime in the past.

Definitions and Symbols

The following terms appear frequently in the report. A detailed listing of the Post-secondary Discipline Classification course codes is provided in Appendix A.

Course Types

Academic Upgrading

Courses designed to upgrade a person's basic skills of reading, writing, spelling and computation, for admission to other academic courses and/or vocational training.

High School Completion

Courses in secondary level subjects which can be applied toward a secondary school diploma.

Vocational and Professional Development

Courses which provide marketable business/technical skills, and courses designed to update, refresh, existing skills or knowledge.

General Interest

Courses which cover a broad range of educational activities pertaining to applied personal skills and effective use of leisure time for personal development.

Community Education

Courses and processes which assist individuals or groups to identify, assess, and meet their learning needs in order to improve the quality of community life.

CLASSIFICATIONS

Conventional Instruction:

Regular classroom instruction.

Non-Conventional Instruction:

Drop-in centres, correspondence courses, tutorials, radio/T.V.

Non-Instructional:

Activity which lhas no direct educational purpose, e.g. recreational activities.

Entertainment (presentation of the performing Arts).

Community Use:

Meetings of clubs and associations where the institution provides facilities only (e.g. space rental or facilities use).

Institution Sponsored:

Regular institution sponsored learning activity.

Co-Sponsored:

Any activity in which program development costs are shared by an educational institution and an outside agency.

Contract Services:

Activities provided by the institution directly to a single contracting agent on a cost recovery basis.

STATISTICS

Instructional Hours (per course) = Course Duration (hours) x Number of Sections

Student Contact Hours (per course) = Number of Registrants x Course Duration (hours)

$$\text{Average Class Size} = \Sigma \frac{\text{Registrations}}{\text{Number of Sections}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

$$\text{Average Tuition Fee Per Instructional Hour} = \Sigma \frac{\text{Tuition Fee}}{\text{Instructional hours}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

Average Instructional Cost Per Student Contact Hour =

$$\Sigma \frac{\text{Instructional Hourly Rate of Pay x Instructional Hours}}{\text{Student Contact Hours}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

$$\text{Average Revenue Per Instructional Hour} = \Sigma \frac{\text{Registrations x Tuition Fee}}{\text{Instructional Hours}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

Average Instructional Hourly Rate of Pay $= \frac{\Sigma \text{ Instructional Hourly Rates of Pay}}{\text{Number of Courses}}$

Symbols used by Continuing Education/Management Services to present tabular information are as follows:

p	indicates a preliminary or estimated figure
r	indicates a revised figure
Σ	indicates summation
-	indicates nil or zero
--	indicates figure too small to express as a percentage
..	indicates not available
...	indicates figure not appropriate

NOTE: 1 Includes Conventional Instruction only.
2 Enrolment growth in college programmes is in part attributed to the changeover in programme responsibility from the school districts to the colleges.
3 1979/80 figure includes registrants absorbed from the Smithers, Kitimat, Terrace and Prince Rupert School District Adult Education Operations.
4 Kettle Valley and Saanich School Districts ceased to offer Continuing Education Programmes in 1980/81.

Continuing Education: is defined as any educational programme organized or part-time adult students undertaking learning activities which are designed to provide knowledge, skills and understanding to meet personal, occupational or community needs.

1. High School Completion: provincial adult secondary school completion program courses.

2. Adult Basic Education: This category is comprised of a cluster of activities which focus on the needs of participants to acquire the basic skills of reading, writing, spelling and computation as well as the life skills required to function as citizens, parents and workers. Includes: G.E.D. preparation, and Adult Special Education, Basic Literacy, BTSD (part-time) and College Foundations (part-time).

3. English Language Training (ELT): learning activities which provide English language training, citizenship instruction or basic language skill upgrading.

4. Professional and Vocational: courses designed to prepare or retrain part-time adult students for the labour market or to upgrade their occupational skills. Such courses must direct to the present or intended vocation of the person wishing to take such training.

5. General Education: personal development and general interest learning activities.

6. Community Education: comprised of activities and programmes by which individuals or groups are assisted to identify, assess and meet their learning needs in order to improve the quality of community life.

INSTRUCTIONS

WHAT TO REPORT ON:

Report information on: 1) ALL Continuing Education classes, workshops, seminars, forums, institutes, symposia, public lecture series and film series involving organized and sustained instruction.

2) ALL Non-Instructional events
- recreational activities (with no instruction)
- entertainment (presentation of the performing arts)

3) ALL meetings of clubs and associations.

Colleges do not report on: full-time or part-time college credit programs (University Transfer, Career/Technical, and General Studies)

- full-time College Preparatory and Vocational programs.

HOW TO REPORT:

General Reporting Procedures

1. School Districts, Colleges and Institutes please list courses by programming centre. Where colleges are unable to report by centre, courses should be listed by school district geographic area.

2. Report a class only for the first reporting period during which it is in session.

3. If a course is offered more than once during the reporting period, it may be reported on one line. Indicate the number of sections or classes in column i. These courses should have the same values for Tuition Fee and Length of Course (columns g & h). If more than one instructor is involved, the hourly rate of pay should be averaged.

SPECIFIC REPORTING PROCEDURES

Column a - line number

Column b - course name

Column c - 1. traditional instruction

2. non-traditional delivery method- e.g. correspondence course, tutorial, radio/TV

3. non-instructional activity - activity which has no direct educational purpose, e.g. - recreational activities (with no instruction)
- entertainment (presentation of the performing arts)

4. meetings of clubs and associations where institution provides facilities only,
e.g. space rental or facilities use

Column d - 1. regular institution sponsored learning activity

2. co-sponsored activity - any learning activity in which program development costs are shared by an educational institution and outside agency.

3. contract services - activities provided by the institution directly to a single contracting agent on a cost recovery basis.

Column e - Course Types include:

1. High School Completion
2. Adult Basic Education
3. English Language Training
4. Professional and Vocational
5. General Education
6. Community Education

Column f - for provincial use

Column g - Tuition Fee ($ per student)
- do not include book and material costs
- if the students in a course pay tuition fees on a monthly basis, multiply this rate by the average student length of stay to give a full tuition fee.

Column h - Length of Course - if students enroll on a continuous intake basis, report the average instructional hours per student.

Column i - Number of Sections - report on the number of separate sections if there is one or more.

Column j - Total Number of Registrants - in courses which are designed for parent and child, report the number of adult registrants only.

Column k - Instructional Hourly Rate of Pay - includes fringe benefits
- if the instructor is a regular full-time staff member, include a pro-rated instructional hourly rate of pay
- honorariums - if the instructor receives a single contracted fee for instruction divide it by the hours of instruction to give a per hour rate.
- hourly rate of pay for instruction from volunteers should appear as $0.

Column l - for provincial office use.

N.B.: SIGNING AUTHORITY: All forms are to be certified correct by the Principal or Superintendent or designate and the secretary-treasurer or bursar.

APPENDIX

A. Post-Secondary Discipline Cluster
B. Continuing Education Programme Report Form

GENERAL INFORMATION

This report presents continuing education course enrolment data in the programmes offered by B.C. school districts, community colleges and provincial institutes.[1] University continuing education enrolment data is not presented in this document.

This edition includes data on the school districts for the "school year" July 1, 1981 to June 30, 1982 and on colleges and institutes for the "fiscal year" April 1, 1981 to March 31, 1982. In April of 1982, the college information collection and reporting system was changed significantly. Thus, college data for the period April 1, 1982 to June 30, 1982 was not directly comparible, and so is not included in this report.

Continuing education programmes include part-time high school completion and academic upgrading courses, vocational training and skills upgrading courses, general interest and community education courses. The part-time enrolments in college and institute university transfer, career/technical, and college preparatory programmes, are not included in this report. Data on the latter programmes are published in the Management Services publication "B.C. Post-Secondary Enrolment Statistics: 1981/82."

This edition is the fourth report prepared from information collected and processed by the Ministry of Education. Editions dated prior to 1979/80 were prepared from data processed by Statistics Canada using a different course/programme classification structure. This change in course classification is particularly important to note if earlier editions of this publication are consulted for comparative/analytical purposes.

1 No reports were submitted by the B.C. Mining Institute, B.C.I.T., or Pacific Marine Institute.

Institutions have been encouraged to coperate with each other and with other community agencies in meeting the learning needs of adults. Institutions and community agencies may share resources to better facilitate the delivery of continuing education programming. Alternatively a local industry or organization may purchase a course from an institution specifically for its own members. Therefore, during 1981/82, institutions were requested to provide course sponsorship information. Classes were categorized as institutional sponsored, co-sponsored, co-sponsored with another institution, and contract services (see CE 120 definitions).

All information to be found in this booklet is based entirely on the CE-120 Reports submitted by the school districts, community colleges and provincial institutes. The Divisions of Continuing Education and Management Services review these reports prior to processing and printing of the data booklet - but alteration of the submissions are minimal - the data are published much as it is received by the Ministry. In recent years the colleges have become more diligent in reporting their continuing education data, this in part accounts for the marked increase in the number of registrants, classes, hours, etc. given in later "Data Booklet" publications. It is difficult to determine what extent partial reporting still occurs - what can be stated, however, is that we are much closer to total system reporting this year than at anytime in the past.

Definitions and Symbols

The following terms appear frequently in the report. A detailed listing of the Post-secondary Discipline Classification course codes is provided in Appendix A.

Course Types

Academic Upgrading

Courses designed to upgrade a person's basic skills of reading, writing, spelling and computation, for admission to other academic courses and/or vocational training.

High School Completion

Courses in secondary level subjects which can be applied toward a secondary school diploma.

Vocational and Professional Development

Courses which provide marketable business/technical skills, and courses designed to update, refresh, existing skills or knowledge.

General Interest

Courses which cover a broad range of educational activities pertaining to applied personal skills and effective use of leisure time for personal development.

Community Education

Courses and processes which assist individuals or groups to identify, assess, and meet their learning needs in order to improve the quality of community life.

CLASSIFICATIONS

Conventional Instruction:

Regular classroom instruction.

Non-Conventional Instruction:

Drop-in centres, correspondence courses, tutorials, radio/T.V.

Non-Instructional:

Activity which has no direct educational purpose, e.g. recreational activities.

Entertainment (presentation of the performing Arts).

Community Use:

Meetings of clubs and associations where the institution provides facilities only (e.g. space rental or facilities use).

Institution Sponsored:

Regular institution sponsored learning activity.

Co-Sponsored:

Any activity in which program development costs are shared by an educational institution and an outside agency.

Contract Services:

Activities provided by the institution directly to a single contracting agent on a cost recovery basis.

STATISTICS

Instructional Hours (per course) = Course Duration (hours) x Number of Sections

Student Contact Hours (per course) = Number of Registrants x Course Duration (hours)

$$\text{Average Class Size} = \Sigma \frac{\text{Registrations}}{\text{Number of Sections}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

$$\text{Average Tuition Fee Per Instructional Hour} = \Sigma \frac{\text{Tuition Fee}}{\text{Instructional hours}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

Average Instructional Cost Per Student Contact Hour =

$$\Sigma \frac{\text{Instructional Hourly Rate of Pay} \times \text{Instructional Hours}}{\text{Student Contact Hours}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

$$\text{Average Revenue Per Instructional Hour} = \Sigma \frac{\text{Registrations} \times \text{Tuition Fee}}{\text{Instructional Hours}} \Big/ \text{Number of Courses}$$

$$\text{Average Instructional Hourly Rate of Pay} = \frac{\text{Instructional Hourly Rates of Pay}}{\Sigma \text{ Number of Courses}}$$

Symbols used by Continuing Education/Management Services to present tabular information are as follows:

p	indicates a preliminary or estimated figure
r	indicates a revised figure
Σ	indicates summation
-	indicates nil or zero
--	indicates figure too small to express as a percentage
..	indicates not available
...	indicates figure not appropriate

APPENDIX B

DEFINITIONS

Continuing Education: is defined as any educational programme organized for part-time adult students undertaking learning activities which are designed to provide knowledge, skills and understanding to meet personal, occupational or community needs.

1. High School Completion: provincial adult secondary school completion program courses.

2. Academic Upgrading: This category is comprised of a cluster of activities which focus on the needs of participants to acquire the basic skills of reading, writing, spelling and computation as well as the life skills required to function as citizens, parents and workers. Includes: G.E.D. preparation, and Adult Special Education, Basic Literacy and B.T.E.D. (part-time).

3. English Language Training (ELT): learning activities which provide English language training, citizenship instruction or basic language skill upgrading.

4. Professional, Business and Vocational: courses designed to prepare or retrain part-time adult students for the labour market or to upgrade their occupational skills. Such courses must relate directly to the present or intended occupation of the person wishing to take such training.

5. General Interest Education: programs pertain to applied personal skills and effective use of leisure time for personal development.

6. Community Education: comprises processes and programs by which individuals or groups are assisted to identify, assess, and meet their learning needs in order to improve the quality of community life. Community education programs contribute to the resolution of such issues as mental illness, pollution, matrication, parent education, and nutrition.

WHAT TO REPORT ON:

Report information on: ALL Continuing Education classes, workshops, seminars, forums, institutes, symposia, public lecture series and film series involving organized and sustained instruction.

HOW TO REPORT:

General Reporting Procedures

1. School Districts please list courses by programming centre.
2. Report a class only for the first reporting period during which it is in session.
3. If a course is offered more than once during the reporting period, it may be reported on one line. Indicate the number of sections or classes in column (k). These courses should have the same values for Tuition Fee and Length of Course (columns g & i).

Specific Reporting Procedures

Column a - line number

Column b - course name

Column c - 1. conventional instruction
2. non-conventional delivery method - e.g. drop-in learning centres, correspondence courses, tutorial, radio/TV.
